

If you are interested in participating in one of CEDEFOP's study visits, then you still have time to apply! The online application for the March - June 2012 study visits is open and will be open till 14 October 2011.

CEDEFOP study visits include presentations and on-site visits for groups of 10-15 persons and for 3-5 days to ministries, educational and training institutions, training sites, etc. The visits provide a forum for discussion, exchange and learning on themes of common interest and on European and national priorities.

Who can apply: directors of guidance centres, educational and vocational training inspectors, head teachers, teacher trainers, heads of departments, pedagogical or guidance advisers, representatives of education and training networks and association, trade union representatives etc.

How can you apply?

- Check if you are eligible to participate
- Contact your national agency for more information
- Consult the programme documents in CEDEFOP's study visits call for applications 2011/12 webpage
- Fill in your application online (around 45 minutes) and send the printed version to your national agency

The selection results will be communicated to applicants by January 2012 from the national agencies.

For more information on the planned study visits for 2011/2012 check out the official catalogue.

CEDEFOP study visits in March - June 2012

Scritto da

Lunedì 12 Settembre 2011 07:18
